New Business: Comprehensive Plan: Reviewed opening statements for Comprehensive Plan. Discussed the community character, population and housing growth. Future land use and annexation where does the town see as far as development down the road how it would like to grow while maintaining the small town feel. The town also looked at areas of preservation for the town in the future. Wyoming is a historic town and the center of town is considered the heart of the community. For the next meeting would like to involve the Historical Society to obtain their knowledge of the history of the town of Wyoming.
